Mr. Donald P. Gregg
Assistant to the Vice President
for National Security Affairs
Executive Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20501

Dear Mr. Gregg:

Thank you for accepting the invitation to address the Career Trainee Development Course, the Agency's orientation course for junior professionals. The students in this class are destined for various assignments in the Agency.

Your talk, entitled "CIA Goals and Values," is envisioned as a bridge between the Career Trainees' orientation course and their careers with the Agency. They will go to their first assignment on the Monday following your talk. You may want to comment on such things as the Agency's culture, how it got to be the organization it is, the political forces that have modified its direction, what its values are, and what Career Trainees have to look forward to as Agency professionals.

Your presentation is scheduled for Friday, 27 September 1985, from 1600 - 1700 hours in Room 902, Chamber of Commerce Building. Someone from our staff will greet you at the second floor receptionist area when you arrive. A parking space will be arranged for you.

We look forward to seeing you.

Sincerely,

Director of Training and Education
